DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. Claims 1-23 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Joel (5215309).

Joel teaches play board with a first portion/path (Fig.1a) and a second portion/path not connected from each other, spaces having categories of connected behavior (spaces #12, 19,56,89,109) and disconnected behavior (spaces # 16, 58), play tokens (Fig.2), cards (fig. 10,7, etc) with corresponding points .

Applicant may note rules for playing do not further add any limitation to the apparatus in the claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 1-24 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Joel in view of Ex. Parte Breslow 192 USPQ 431..

Claims 1-23: Joel teaches all limitations except that it does not expressly associate exactly all behavior classes and listed in claims. The only difference between applicant's claims and cited reference resides in meaning and information conveyed by the printed matter that are not considered patentable. In order to make the game attractive, it would have been obvious to associate various behaviors to spaces. One of ordinary skill in art at the time the invention was made would have suggested associating spaces to various behaviors for making the game attractive.

Claim 24: Playing the game on a computer is intended use and would have been obvious in order to reach certain sections of population. One of ordinary skill in art at the time the invention was made would have suggested playing game on computer to reach certain sections of population.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-24 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

5. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
